

PRIVACY POLICY

of EEZY NETWORK

EEZY NETWORK is truly committed for protecting your privacy and providing a safe online experience. Data collected from visitors of this website is processed by EMO Fintech Group Ltd. (“EEZY NETWORK”, “we” or “us”) in its capacity as both provider of this website and a service provider. The above mentioned services will be referred to hereinafter as the “digital presence”. Protection of your personal data is of great importance to us. We therefore, as a matter of routine, handle your personal data responsibly and in compliance with the applicable statutory data protection provisions and postal legislation. This Privacy Policy contains information for you about our data processing methods. We explain what data will be processed by us whenever you access this website.

COVERAGE

This ‘Privacy Policy’ is applicable for your Use in every manner of the Website. This Privacy Policy will apply to all Uses of any access of the Website from any device and any operating system or platform.

DATA COLLECTION AND USAGE

Our digital presence can be used without disclosing any personal data, unless it is stated otherwise in this Privacy Policy. As is common practice with many websites, certain data such as IP addresses and other usage information, is collected automatically and then analyzed and processed anonymously by our web analytics software. We will only ask you to provide the personal data we require to perform the services we provide.

General

Our web servers automatically log every visit in a temporary log file. User-specific data (the IP address of the requesting computer, identification data of the browser used, the operating system of the requesting computer, the amount of data transferred, the name of the Internet Service Provider, the date and time of access) and technical data (the name and URL of the referring web page when the website was accessed via a link and, additionally, the search term if it was accessed via a search engine) are logged and analyzed anonymously. First and foremost, this data is needed to enable the use of our content (connection set-up), and is also used for system-related purposes, such as technical administration and system security.

Account registration

In order to use some of our online services, you must first register by entering your email address and by choosing a password.

Online forms

We collect the data you fill in online forms such as contact forms. The information you provide us with will be recorded in our IT systems.

Usage

We do not use data as described above for any other purposes, unless you have given your express consent to additional data processing when using certain services. Collecting data helps us to develop and improve our digital presence and to optimize our range of services. We will use the data we collect about you as described above for the following purposes:

To enable your use of the digital presence (establishing a connection)

For internal management of the website, for example technical administration and maintenance of system security

To provide logins, online services and contractually-compliant processing of these services

To tailor our digital presence to specific target groups (with targeted content or information on the website that may be of interest to you)

To prevent fraud and improve the security of the website
